Civil Support Operations

FM 3-28 Current Status

- FM 3-28 is nearing completion.
- Version 6.3 (30 March) made changes requested by LTG Swan, CG ARNORTH to emphasize complementary capabilities of Federal and State Forces. Also:
  - Consolidated 6 fundamentals into 5,
  - Consolidated CBRNE and Pandemic Response,
  - Added Appendix I on the Joint Field Office.
- Version 6.4 (16 April) sent to NGB and USARNORTH. This version has several substantive modifications. Key changes:
  - Updated Chapter 4 (CBRNE CM) to highlight the QDR-driven DOD CBRN Response Force (DCRF) and National Guard Homeland Response Force (HRF).
  - Revised Chapter 5 (Support to LEA) to more accurately reflect DODD directives and avoid confusing anti/counter terrorism.
  - Shifted some discussion of Posse Comitatus Act from Chapter 5 to Chapter 7
  - Includes discussion of Emergency Authority (DODD 5525.5 and DODD 3025.dd)

Revised Fundamentals for Civil Support

1. The overriding purpose of Civil Support is to save lives, alleviate suffering, and protect property.
2. The law impacts every aspect of Civil Support--who has jurisdiction; who responds; the restraints and constraints imposed on Soldiers.
3. Civilian officials direct Civil Support efforts. They set the priorities. The Army su
4. All costs associated with Civil Support missions must be documented .
5. The military end state is reached when civil authorities can fulfill their responsibilities without military assistance.
